ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

All the following are required by the Association before it will consider applications.

- a) Detailed breakdown of expenses for which financial help is being sought.
- b) Details of circumstances which make it difficult or impossible for you to meet those costs.
- c) Details of any other financial assistance received. Please list any other Trusts to which you have applied, with or without success.

Please be aware that the number of applicants and funds available for a Bursary can vary. The Association will give full and careful consideration to every application. Its decision is based primarily on need and they may be obliged to assess whether the support is helpful or essential to the applicant. Please, therefore, provide as much detail as you can.

The Association will consider the application on the clear understanding that they may make such enquiries about the applicant as they deem necessary and, further, that the applicant is prepared to attend and be interviewed by the Association, or one of its members, for the purpose of determining whether or what assistance may be granted.

In signing this form I give permission for the Jersey Eisteddfod to store my data only for its use in accordance with its Privacy Statement.
